Miss Nora Conway a Hit At Her Debut in Concert

The musical afternoon in The Little Theatre yesterday under the auspices of Mme. Letta von Elsner (Baroness Polsk von Elsner) was remarkable in the richness of the material that was nfolded to a highly appreciative gathering of concert lovers. A large number the Baroness, who presided at the lane, assisted by Sig. Umberto Mar-Mr. Frederick Vaska rendered ections on the 'cello. Sig. Umberto forrentino sang several numbers in a sympathetic tenor and Mrs. Mary Louise Woelber gave her inimitable "Melodies

The range of the programme included me score or more selections. Miss is a Rose" and "Mighty Lak a Rose," oth of which she rendered with an ease that showed her capacity to attack much more intricate compositions. Clothes from Maker to Wearer

Clothes Values Which Are Unequalled and WHY-Moe Levy

Convenience is the great "come on" that always makes you pay more. Transient locations are right along the "line of march"—that's why you see most of the clothing stores there. These stores pay exorbitant rents and you pay for their convenience. In order to draw you to my Walker Street store I simply must give better values than any other clothier in town-and it is possible. Here's how:

Firstly, because I save thousands of dollars a year between my present rent and the rent I would have to pay if my store was situated on Broadway. Then I manufacture all the clothes I sell and actually save you the difference between the regular wholesaler's profit and the retailer's selling price. The retailer is compelled to charge at least one-third more than I ask in order to cover the difference between his purchase price and my manufacturing cost as well as his greater cost of doing business. Not over 20% of my trade live within a radius of one mile of my store—I have to draw them here by greater values.

Let me prove my claims. Go to any other store, look at the style garment, the fabric and the price you are willing to pay, then come here and I'll satisfy your ideas at a saving of at least 331/3%.

$25 Service Guaranteed Suits at $15

This great value is the recognized clothing wonder of this generation, and is a good example of my great value giving ability all through the line, from $10 to $35.

These suits are not of the ordinary kind—they are not suits of so many yards of cloth thrown together to sell at $15. On the contrary, every garment is tailored and styled by my own staff of skilled tailors and under my personal supervision. Every suit is of the $25 variety. There are four times as many styles and ten times the variety of patterns as shown by any retailer in town-and the fabrics include the season's most striking effects in greens, browns, blues, grays and plain colors. In fact I will completely satisfy your idea of a $25 suit for $15.
